

“Each mind has its own method.”

PYP Primary Teacher

Location: International School of Schaffhausen, Switzerland

Position: PYP Teacher (100% full-time)

Duration: January/February (start date negotiable) until the end of the academic year

The International School of Schaffhausen is a growing school in the Zurich North area, Switzerland. We are an IB-World School authorised for the PYP and Diploma Programme. We are looking for a passionate and experienced educator to join our dynamic team at the International School of Schaffhausen for a short-term teaching position within our Primary Years Programme (PYP). This position will cover for a member of the Primary team who is on sick leave. There is potential for the role to be extended depending on the school's needs and performance.

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver engaging, inquiry-based lessons that align with the PYP framework.
- Guide students through their learning journey, emphasising collaboration, critical thinking and creativity.
- Support the PYP Exhibition process to ensure a meaningful and reflective experience for students.
- Communicate effectively with students, parents and colleagues.
- Participate in collaborative planning and contribute to the school's vibrant learning culture.

We value

- A strong understanding of the IB philosophy and inquiry-based learning.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- International school experience preferred.
- Flexibility, adaptability and a collaborative approach.

Qualifications

- Proven PYP teaching experience, including hands-on involvement with the PYP Exhibition.
- Internationally recognised teaching qualification.

Application Process

The closing date for applications is Monday 13 January 2025.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a cover letter, resume, and references to Andrea Paetkau, Primary Principal a.paetkau@issch.ch to be contacted for an interview.